

Cead mile failte!

A hundred thousand welcomes is what you will get when you visit the beautiful and historic island of Eire. There is so much to choose from that the hardest choice is where to start!

GoGlobal Explorations has designed Ireland vacation packages to meet any desire... whether a short escape to a longer adventure. Accommodations are provided at some of the most comfortable bed-and-breakfasts in the country, and include a full traditional Irish breakfast on every day of your trip.

All tours start in Dublin. You can simply explore this urban jewel (which could easily fill weeks or even months!) or use the included rental car to look for some of the many hidden (and not so hidden!) Irish treasures.

Our packages include suggested itineraries, but nothing is required... Follow our routes or do your own thing to create a hundred thousand memories during the trip of a lifetime.

Ireland is a country in which the probable never happens and the impossible always does.

– John P. Mahaffey

A Hundred Thousand Welcomes!

From Neolithic sites older than the Pyramids of Giza and Stonehenge to the modern galleries of Dublin, Ireland has something for everyone! Let this beautiful land capture your imagination as you explore the mystery and magic of Ireland.

CULTURAL DISCOVERY

The Irish love traditions... from eating colcannon on Halloween, to wearing something green on St. Patrick's Day, to enjoying an evening of traditional music and Irish dancing. Legendary for its craic and fleadhs, festivals and fairs are a massive part of Irish cultural life, from the urban and urbane Kinsale Gourmet Festival or Dublin Theatre Festival to the Puck Fair in Kerry, where a goat is crowned king!

URBAN EXPERIENCE

Both vibrant and cosmopolitan, the urban hubs of Ireland are not too big to be overwhelming, and not so small that you can see it all in a day.

Cities like Dublin, Belfast, Cork, Galway, and Lisburn offer a unique combination of local flavor, fabulous markets, authentic pubs, chic boutiques, beautiful galleries, legendary museums, verdant parks, elegant architecture, and fascinating history. You will not run out of places to explore!

NATURAL WONDERS

Known as the land that boasts forty shades of green, the natural beauty of Ireland is unparalleled... from the otherworldly landscapes of the Giants Causeway, to the glittering waters of the River Shannon, to the stunning depths of the Cliffs of Moher, to the isolated beauty of the many remote islands. This breathtaking country holds new wonders around every turn!
